

CARESEARCH PAGE PROFILE: PROMOTIONAL RESOURCES (CNIN NOVEMBER 2009)

CareSearch has recently released a set of resources within the website in the About CareSearch section. The Promotional Resources area has recently been updated with hard copy brochures and Fact Sheets as well as a set of CareSearch DVDs.

CareSearch DVD's

A new set of resources also recently developed are a set of DVDs. Of interest to those in Aged Care (the focus of CNIN this month) is a DVD of two Aged Care Nurses in the Professional Groups section talking about their experience of palliative care in aged care. Why not encourage staff to watch it and see if this reflects their experiences? Other health professional DVDs include Volunteers, Social Workers and a Rural Nurse.

There is also a DVD with Professor David Currow talking about the importance of evidence in palliative care.

DVDs have also been produced to introduce people to the seven sections of the For Patients and Families section of the website. Go onto the website now and have a look.

Promotional Resources

In this section are brochures and fact sheets for patients carers and families, which include general resources as well as brochures that reflect the seven sections of the For Patients and Families section of the website. They are useful to hand out for further reading for those who want to find out more information about palliative care and about the information offered on CareSearch.

There are also brochures and fact sheets for health professionals which include general resources, profession specific and clinical issues Fact Sheets.

CareSearch is an online resource funded by the Department of Health and Ageing to help clinicians and consumers find relevant evidence about palliative care. Available now at www.caresearch.com.au
