

Education Modules

Understanding the Context of Death and Dying

Learn more on the importance of your role for people who are dying an expected death in hospitals.

- The Importance of Coordinating Patient Care - NEW
- End-of-Life Care for Diverse Communities
- Dying, a normal part of life
- Chronic Complex Illness End-of-Life Care
- Emergency Department End-of-Life Care
- Paediatric End-of-Life Care

Clinical skills in end-of-life care

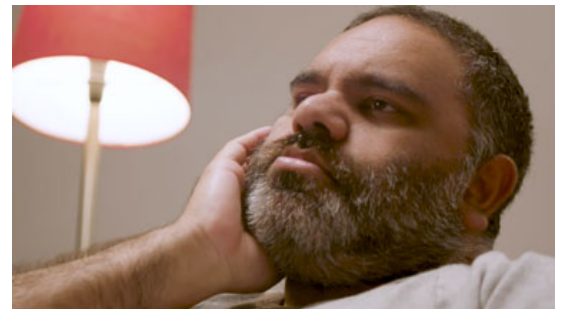

Quality end-of-life care requires a range of clinical skills and knowledge. Learn more and grow your confidence in delivering services and care to people who are dying.

- Recognising the End of Life
- Patient-Centred Communication and Shared Decision-Making
- Planning End-of-Life Care - Goals of Care
- Responding to Concerns
- Teams and Continuity for the Patient
- Imminent Death - How to Respond

Patient States of Mind

People living and dying with serious illness may have emotional, spiritual and existential concerns as well as mental ill-health.

- States of Mind at the End of Life
- Assessing Patient States of Mind at the End of Life
- Clinical Management of Anxiety, Depression and More

Accreditation and Management

Learn more about the significance of the National Safety and Quality Health Service Standards and quality end-of-life Care.

- Meeting the Standards - NEW
- Clinical Change Management - NEW

