

Evaluation of my use of EBP

HINGH	ng answerable questions	Yes	No
1.	Do I ask any clinical questions?
2.	Do I use PICO, PICo or similar to develop my questions?
3.	Do I have a method to develop and save my questions?
Acqu	iring the best external evidence	Yes	No
1.	Am I searching for evidence?
2.	Do I know the best sources of current evidence for my clinical discipline?
3.	Do I have access to the best evidence for my clinical discipline?
4.	Do I use Booleans, MeSH headings, limiters, suitable keywords or an appro	opriate search filter when searching PubMed?
Appr	aisal of evidence	Yes	No
1.	Do I critically appraise external evidence at all?
2.	Is my use of critical appraisal checklists improving?
3.	Is my understanding of outcome certainty and rigour and the measures used to asses	ss this improving?
4.	Have I created any appraisal summaries?
Adopting evidence
Adop	oting evidence	Yes	No
Adop	oting evidence Am I integrating my critical appraisals of evidence into my practice at all?	Yes	No
	 	Yes	No
1. 2.	Am I integrating my critical appraisals of evidence into my practice at all?	Yes	No
1. 2.	Am I integrating my critical appraisals of evidence into my practice at all? When evidence suggests a need to change practice, am I identifying barriers and	Yes	No
1. 2. facilit	Am I integrating my critical appraisals of evidence into my practice at all? When evidence suggests a need to change practice, am I identifying barriers and tators to this change?	Yes	No
1. 2. facilit 3. 4.	Am I integrating my critical appraisals of evidence into my practice at all? When evidence suggests a need to change practice, am I identifying barriers and tators to this change? Am I eliciting patient values and preferences? Am I explaining the potential risks and benefits to my patients and checking that understand?	Yes	No
 1. 2. facilit 3. 4. they 5. 	Am I integrating my critical appraisals of evidence into my practice at all? When evidence suggests a need to change practice, am I identifying barriers and tators to this change? Am I eliciting patient values and preferences? Am I explaining the potential risks and benefits to my patients and checking that understand? Am I integrating the evidence with my clinical expertise and my patient's values	Yes	No
 1. 2. facilit 3. 4. they 5. 	Am I integrating my critical appraisals of evidence into my practice at all? When evidence suggests a need to change practice, am I identifying barriers and tators to this change? Am I eliciting patient values and preferences? Am I explaining the potential risks and benefits to my patients and checking that understand?	Yes	No
 1. 2. facilit 3. 4. they 5. 	Am I integrating my critical appraisals of evidence into my practice at all? When evidence suggests a need to change practice, am I identifying barriers and tators to this change? Am I eliciting patient values and preferences? Am I explaining the potential risks and benefits to my patients and checking that understand? Am I integrating the evidence with my clinical expertise and my patient's values	Yes	No
1. 2. facilit 3. 4. they 5. and p 6.	Am I integrating my critical appraisals of evidence into my practice at all? When evidence suggests a need to change practice, am I identifying barriers and tators to this change? Am I eliciting patient values and preferences? Am I explaining the potential risks and benefits to my patients and checking that understand? Am I integrating the evidence with my clinical expertise and my patient's values preferences?	Yes	No
1. 2. facilit 3. 4. they 5. and p 6. oppo	Am I integrating my critical appraisals of evidence into my practice at all? When evidence suggests a need to change practice, am I identifying barriers and tators to this change? Am I eliciting patient values and preferences? Am I explaining the potential risks and benefits to my patients and checking that understand? Am I integrating the evidence with my clinical expertise and my patient's values preferences? Am I sharing my findings with others at meetings, journal club, or other retunities?	Yes	No
1. 2. facilit 3. 4. they 5. and p 6. oppo	Am I integrating my critical appraisals of evidence into my practice at all? When evidence suggests a need to change practice, am I identifying barriers and tators to this change? Am I eliciting patient values and preferences? Am I explaining the potential risks and benefits to my patients and checking that understand? Am I integrating the evidence with my clinical expertise and my patient's values preferences? Am I sharing my findings with others at meetings, journal club, or other artunities? Ssing evidence When evidence suggests a change in practice, am I identifying ways to monitor
1. 2. facilit 3. 4. they 5. and p 6. oppo	Am I integrating my critical appraisals of evidence into my practice at all? When evidence suggests a need to change practice, am I identifying barriers and tators to this change? Am I eliciting patient values and preferences? Am I explaining the potential risks and benefits to my patients and checking that understand? Am I integrating the evidence with my clinical expertise and my patient's values preferences? Am I sharing my findings with others at meetings, journal club, or other retunities? ssing evidence When evidence suggests a change in practice, am I identifying ways to monitor mpact of this change?
1. 2. facilit 3. 4. they 5. and p 6. oppo	Am I integrating my critical appraisals of evidence into my practice at all? When evidence suggests a need to change practice, am I identifying barriers and tators to this change? Am I eliciting patient values and preferences? Am I explaining the potential risks and benefits to my patients and checking that understand? Am I integrating the evidence with my clinical expertise and my patient's values preferences? Am I sharing my findings with others at meetings, journal club, or other artunities? Ssing evidence When evidence suggests a change in practice, am I identifying ways to monitor		